

ARTS

20
OCT.Art San Diego: "On the Horizon in Today's Art World"

3 p.m. Saturday. Wyland Center, Del Mar Fairgrounds, 2260 Jimmy Durante Blvd., Del Mar. Three-day pass (includes Friday Collectors' Opening Night Party plus full weekend) $40; two-day pass $25; one-day pass $20. Discounts available. Parking $14 a day. art-sandiego.com

Art San Diego, the contemporary art show that turns 10 this year, kicks off at the Del Mar Fairgrounds on Thursday, with more than 15,000 art lovers expected to attend the four-day event. On Saturday, architect Christopher Mercier (pictured) — of Inglewood-based (fer) studio — joins photographer and curator Yubal Marquez Fleites and designer Dorothy Willetts in a conversation titled "On the Horizon in Today's Art World." The three will share ideas about the state of the art scene. Later that day, at 5:30 p.m., three artists — Chuck Thomas, Tom Liguori and Red Wolf — will share "strategies and secrets" behind their success.

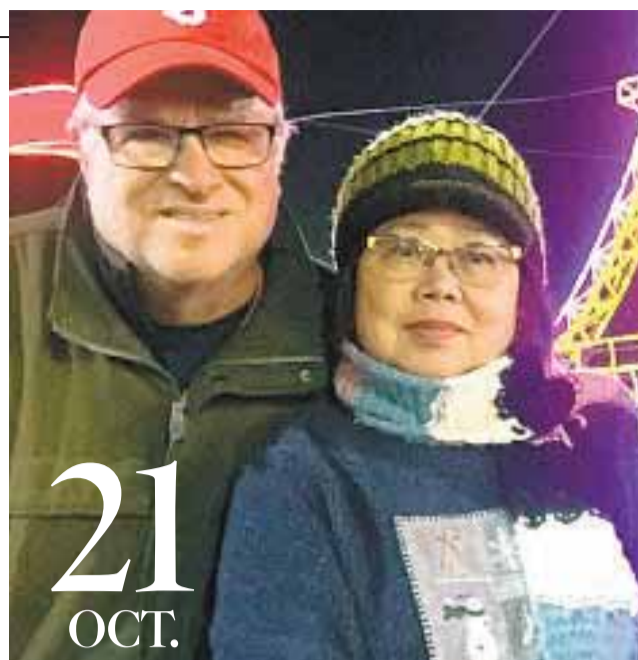

MICHAEL JAMES ROCHA • U-T

"Songs of Bernadette," a memorial concert for Bernadette Thorn

Featuring Jim Hinton, Dave Humphries, Bart Mendoza & David Fleminger, Steve Rosenbaum, Liz and Kent Abbott, Bill Hartwell, Scott Samuels and more. 5 p.m. next Sunday. Holy Trinity Anglican Church, 2051 Sunset Cliffs Blvd., Ocean Beach. Free admission. (858) 550-8088

Bernadette Thorn was a vital part of the San Diego music scene, which she lovingly chronicled through the concert photographs she took for The Troubadour. After she suffered severe neck and head injuries in a fall last month, the music community responded. While Thorn was on life support, no fewer than six prominent local singer-songwriters sang at her bedside at Mercy Hospital, where she died Sept. 8. All six will perform next Sunday at "Songs of Bernadette," a memorial concert. It will feature some of the favorite songs of Bernadette and her husband, award-winning history professor and San Diego music historian Steve Thorn. Donations will be accepted to Donate Life California, the nonprofit to which Bernadette Thorn left her body.

GEORGE VARGA • U-T

21
OCT."The Heart of Rock & Roll"

7 p.m. Tuesday-Wednesday; 8 p.m. Thursday-Friday; 2 and 8 p.m. Saturday; 2 and 7 p.m. Sunday. Through Oct. 21. Old Globe's Donald and Darlene Shiley Stage, Balboa Park. $39 and up. (619) 234-5623. theoldglobe.org

The next stop just might be Broadway for "The Heart of Rock & Roll," the Old Globe's good-time musical set to the songs of Huey Lewis and the News. But you've got one more week to catch the world-premiere production of this show that celebrates the power of love and the hipness of being square. (More or less literally: The story is cleverly set in a cardboard-box factory.) Broadway stars Katie Rose Clarke and Matt Doyle shine as a romantic pair trying to walk the thin line between devotion to each other and commitment to their dreams, and the show puts up all kinds of splashy visuals as it dips into Lewis' impressive catalog of singable hits. If the musical's storyline comes off as more modest than the spectacle that surrounds it, "Heart" should still stir the souls of true Huey-heads.

JAMES HEBERT • U-T

THROUGH
21
OCT.21
OCT.San Diego Master Chorale: Brahms' "Ein Deutsches Requiem"

4 p.m. next Sunday, with a pre-concert lecture at 3:15 p.m. Point Loma Presbyterian Church, 2128 Chatsworth Blvd., San Diego. 6 p.m. Oct. 28, with a pre-concert lecture at 5:30 p.m. First Presbyterian Church, 320 Date St., San Diego. $25 adults; $15 seniors (60 and up), military and students. Free for children under 12. sdmasterchorale.org

The San Diego Master Chorale will present the rarely performed choral masterpiece "Ein Deutsches Requiem" ("A German Requiem") in two performances, the first one next Sunday at Point Loma Presbyterian Church. Johannes Brahms' piece will be performed by the more than 100-member San Diego Master Chorale under the direction of music director John K. Russell. Joining the chorale will be pianists Bryan Verhoye and Jessie Chang as well as soprano Tatiana James and baritone Matthew Fallesen. Jahja Ling (pictured), the San Diego Symphony's conductor laureate, will deliver a pre-concert lecture.

MICHAEL JAMES ROCHA • U-T

How to reach us

UNION-TRIBUNE ARTS + CULTURE

PHONE: (619) 299-3131 FAX: (619) 260-5083

EMAIL: arts@sduniontribune.com

ADDRESS: Arts, Union-Tribune, P.O. Box 120191, San Diego, CA 92112-0191

Michael Rocha, Arts & Entertainment editorEMAIL: michael.rocha@sduniontribune.com • (619) 293-1724Chris Ross, Travel editorEMAIL: chris.ross@sduniontribune.com • (619) 293-1295Reporters, critics*James HebertEMAIL: jim.hebert@sduniontribune.com

TWITTER: @jimhebert

George VargaEMAIL: george.varga@sduniontribune.com

TWITTER: @georgevarga

Final Week to See the Must-See Musical of the Fall!*CRITIC'S CHOICE

The San Diego Union-Tribune

"A BIG, SPLASHY SHOW with plenty of heart!"

San Diego CityBeat

"A HIGH-OCTANE MUSICAL that promises a good time!"

BroadwayWorld

THE HEART OF ROCK & ROLL

Book by Jonathan A. Abrams
Story by Tyler Mitchell
and Jonathan A. Abrams
Directed by Gordon Greenberg

A NEW MUSICAL
INSPIRED BY THE ICONIC SONGS OF

HUEY LEWIS
AND THE NEWS

Must Close Next Sunday!

THE OLD GLOBE

The cast of The Heart of Rock & Roll. Photo by Jim Cox.

Generously Sponsored by Terry Atkinson
Elaine and Dave Darwin
Edgerton Foundation
HM Electronics, Inc.
Rhona and Rick Thompson
Viasat
Pam Wagner and Hans Tegebo
Sheryl and Harvey White

(619) 23-GLOBE (234-5623)*TheOldGlobe.org